The motion carried unanimously. (Recorded in Commissioner's Court Papers Book 61 Page 796)

Hamilton County Personnel Update

Lance Christensen was moved from dispatcher to communications supervisor.

Karen Rister from communications supervisor to dispatcher.

Tynes read aloud the minutes of the county finances treasurer's report for September 2018. The total cash on hand is $1,332,984.55 and total investments $1,613,840.00. (Recorded in Commissioner's Court Papers Book 61 Page 835)

A request was made from Christine Kohler a photographer that photographs for iStock/Getty images, a stock photo service to use some photographs taken of the Hamilton County Courthouse and clock tower. The court discussed this and didn't see any harm in allowing her to use the photos. The court had no objection for Tynes to sign the property release. Tynes also spoke to the court about the swearing into office the elected officials for the upcoming term. After discussion the court decided on January 2, 2019. A time would be established later.

Tynes also said that Shawna Dyer, County Treasurer had emailed him letting him know that nowhere in the policy did it reference holiday pay for part time employees.

Clary said that in the past the employee would receive half of the holiday pay (4 hours). The court was good with that. The only person affected was in the AgriLife department.

Tynes adjourned the court at 9:14 A.M.
